Art Unit: 1731

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-8 and 17-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The terms "wherein the pulp fed is of varying consistency"; "a consistency of the pulp changes in time"; and "the pulp being fed at various times during the method has a dilute consistency and a condensed consistency" were not originally disclosed and contain new matter. They appear to be broader than the original disclosure.

Applicant states that the language suggested by the Examiner in the last Office Action does not address the situation wherein the pulp consistency changes from one discharge event to another. However, such an embodiment does not appear to be disclosed. Instant Figure 1 illustrates "consistency variation of pulp during the blow of one digester". The consistency of the pulp discharged appears to vary from the beginning to the end. It does not show the consistency in the blow tank or storage tank changing in time.

Claims 1-8 and 17-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 1731

The terms “wherein the pulp fed is of varying consistency”; “a consistency of the pulp changes in time”; and “the pulp being fed at various times during the method has a dilute consistency and a condensed consistency” were not originally disclosed and thus their meaning is not clear. The term “consistency of the pulp changes in time” is indefinite. It is not clear how it changes in time since the time period has not been defined. Also the term “condensed consistency” is indefinite. What is a condensed consistency? Where are these terms defined in the specification?

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
